list of gifts from Panakestor: P. Mich. Zen. 108

FOURTH PERIOD

TEXTS WRITTEN WHILE ZENON WAS MANAGER OF THE DOREA AT PHILADELPHIA

(years 30-38: April/May 256 - c. Dec. 248)

ZENON'S FILES<sup>5</sup>

Letters etc. to Zenon

y. (29)30-35 from Apollonios, the dioiketes:

P. Cairo Zen. 2 59.142, 153-159, 165, 166, 168 (26/27 April 256), 170, 177, 179, 180, 184, 185, 195 (to Zenon + Panakestor, year 31), 199-

<sup>4</sup> It may be noted that there are no letters from Panakestor to Apollonios in Zenon's files.

<sup>5</sup> Zenon took over the management of the Philadelphia dorea from Panakestor and incorporated Panakestor's archive into his own. So the letters which Zenon had sent to Panakestor returned to the sender, including the letter (P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.546) of which Zenon had kept the draft (P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.545 R<sup>o</sup>) in his own files.

FIFTH PERIOD

TEXTS WRITTEN IN THE FIRST YEARS AFTER ZENON'S DISMISSAL AS MANAGER OF THE DOREA
(years 38-8: c. Dec. 248-240/239)

FILES OF THE MANAGERS OF THE DOREA (years 38-c. 5)<sup>6</sup>

Letters and other documents to Eukles (or to Herakleides the overseer of the γεωργία of the dorea)

- y. 39 P. Col. Zen. 2 76: acknowledgement of a debt (to Eukles + Agathokles); P. Mich. Zen. 62: agreement (made in accordance with a letter from Herakleides)
- y. 2 P. L. Bat. 20 54 (to Eukles; on the verso, draft of a letter: P. L. Bat. 20 61); P. Mich. Zen. 65 (to Eukles); PSI 6 579 (to Herakleides)
- y. 3 P. Cairo Zen. 3 59.350 (to Eukles; on the verso, draft of a letter: P. Cairo Zen. 4 p. 288); P. Col. Zen. 2 84 (to Eukles), 87 (to Eukles from Apollonios the scribe; on the back, drafts of letters: P. Col. Zen. 2 88)
- to Eukles: P. Col. Zen. 2 86; P. Lond. 7 2047; PSI 6 611
- to Herakleides: PSI 6 635

Letter to Bion (succeeds Eukles in year 4 or 5: P. Cairo Zen. 3 59.366)

- P. L. Bat. 20 52

Letters etc. to persons connected with Eukles to Agathokles (associated with Eukles in Philadelphia in y. 39: P. Col. Zen. 2 76)

- y. 38 PSI 5 537 (from Eukles; on the verso, a contract: PSI 5 521; both texts are connected with the Aphroditopolite nome)

to Apollonios the scribe (owner of Eukles' archive)

- y. 4 P. L. Bat. 20 49 (from Eukles)—Apollonios checks Zenodoros' accounts (P. Col. Zen. 2 90, 19-26) and has to check the suspicious accounts of the χωμογραμματεὺς Anosis (P. Col. Zen. 2 88, 31).

Persons called Apollonios frequently occur in texts from this period:

- 1) an Apollonios receives the same sitometria as Zenon and Epharmostos (they are mentioned together in P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.569, 7-8; P. Col. Zen. 2 77 R<sup>o</sup>, 29-31; P. Lond. 7 2149, 1-3)
- 2) an Apollonios addresses Zenon as "brother": P. Col. Zen. 2 81; cf. P. Cairo Zen. 3 59.391*;
- 3) an Apollonios is the addressee of P. Col. Zen. 2 90<sup>7</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Apollonios the scribe was the owner of this archive; this explains the presence in it of P. L. Bat. 20 49 (letter from Eukles to Apollonios), see P. L. Bat. 20 p. 5-6.

<sup>7</sup> The editors suppose that he is not the Apollonios mentioned in l. 20, but, since the text is a copy of two different original texts, it is obviously possible that this copy was sent to the author of one of the original texts, i.e. to the Apollonios mentioned in l. 20.

(Sixth period)

- y. 18 P. dem. Zen. 7: letter from Hetposiris to Keleesis; P. L. Bat. 20 53 (?): fragment of a letter from Glaukos to Demeas; cf. P. L. Bat. 20 Suppl. E: list of tax arrears and letter from Achoapis to Ptolemaios (mentioning Zenon)
- y. 19 G. Ord. Ptol. 28: royal prostagma (on the verso of P. Col. Zen. 2 85, land lease with the farmers of Herakleopolis, year 5)

Selected types of text contained in the archive<sup>12</sup>

I. CONTRACTS ETC.

Nearly all the following texts come from the files of the buyer, lessor, creditor, etc. but PSI 4 385 and PSI 5 509 are from the files of the debtor. P. dem. Zen. 1 belongs to a small group of Memphite documents which it is surprising to find in the archive<sup>13 14</sup>.

<sup>12</sup> In particular, types of text have been selected which are of importance for further investigation of the question why certain texts were kept in this archive.

<sup>13</sup> See also below no. 6 (letters from Zenon to Artemidoros and Isingos), no. 8 (P. Cairo Zen. 1 59.136: letter from Artemidoros to Mus) and no. 16 (miscellaneous texts: P. Col. ## 12. PETITIONS TO OTHER PERSONS

A petition to a person other than the king is usually called an ἐπιστολή (see for example P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.632, 5 and P. Lond. 7 2023, 2: in both cases the petition is forwarded, perhaps to Zenon); we have therefore listed these “petitions” as “letters”. See however:

P. Cairo Zen. 2 59.236 (to Diotimos, the ὑποδιοικητής) and P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.622 (to Zenon): each text is designated in the docket as an ἔντευξις

13. TEXTS IN MORE THAN ONE COPY

Sometimes identical texts are found in the archive for reasons that are not clear

Three identical texts

the personal description, in three copies, of Thorax (a παῖς; see Reekmans, Sitométrie, p. 96 no. 153)

P. Cairo Zen. 1 59.070

P. Lond. 7 1949

P. Lond. 7 1950

Two identical texts

a pair of letters from Apollonios to Apollodotos: PSI 4 324; verso: “to Apollodotos” to Hikesios: PSI 4 325; verso: “to Hikesios”

a pair of letters from Eudemos and Herakleides to Hegemon and ... philos: P. L. Bat. 20 76 A; verso: [“to ... philos”?]

to Hegemon and ... philos: P. L. Bat. 20 76 B; verso: “to Hegemon” a pair of letters from Hierokles to Zenon: P. Lond. 7 1945; verso: “to Nikanor”<sup>16</sup> to Nikanor: P. Lond. 7 1946; verso: “to Zenon”<sup>16</sup>

14. προσαγγέλματα

M. Hombert - Cl. Préaux, Recherches sur le prosangelma à l'époque ptolémaïque, CdÉ 17 (1942) 259-286.

Official notifications to the police

P. Col. Zen. 2 92 + P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.659 (year 7)

notification to a φυλακίτης of a robbery;—from Zenon's agent Dioskourides (duplicate document?)

P. Mich. Zen. 34 (year 31)

notification to an ἀρχιφυλακίτης of the loss of a donkey;—from an unknown person (duplicate document; the inner text was found sealed up with a plain clay seal)

<sup>16</sup> It may be noted that the addressees have been transposed. Cf. the letters PSI 5 524 and PSI 6 588 which bear on the verso the wrong address:

PSI 5 524 (letter to Zenon and Xenophon); verso: “to Xenophon”

PSI 6 588 (letter to Zenon); verso: “to Agenor”

Was there perhaps a second copy of these letters bearing the address “to Zenon”? See also P. Cairo Zen. 4 59.604 addressed “to Zenon”, the address “to Ptolemaios” being deleted.

Now for us it is sometimes very difficult to know to which kind of year a particular document is dated, for only during the months Thoth-Tybi do the three calendars coincide. In practice the datings must be checked in every document; it is impossible to rely on the dates given by the editors. In general it may be supposed (but it has to be stressed that it is nothing more than a working hypothesis) that

- many Greeks, not only when living in Alexandria, use the Macedonian calendar, either with Macedonian months and days or Egyptian ones;
- many financial documents, accounts, and receipts use the Financial year;
- Egyptian persons and demotic documents generally use the Egyptian year.

Sometimes the text itself provides a clue:

- P. Cairo Zen. 1 59.130, 22-23: Λ λ Περιτίου ἐμβολίμου, Μεχείρ κ̄γ; the year λ must be the Financial year (= the Macedonian year 29) since in the Mac. year λ there was no embolimos month: 15/16 April 256 B.C.
- P. Lond. 7 1938: the letter was written Λ κθ Μεχείρ θ and received Λ κη Δύστρου δ; the year κθ can only be the Financial year, and the year κη the Macedonian one; the letter was therefore written on 2 April 257 and received five days later on 7 April 257.
- P. Col. Zen. 1 10: the dates are respectively Λ κη Φαμενώθ ζ (Egyptian year) and Λ κθ Ξανδικού β (Macedonian year).

Sometimes it may be helpful to compare dates used by the same person on different occasions.<sup>10</sup> On the pages that follow, the evidence with regard to Zenon has been collected. As far as we can ascertain Zenon's method of dating (in his later years this becomes very difficult because his documents are no longer docketed),<sup>11</sup> he himself and his clerks use the Macedonian years in letters and docketed (for the administration of the δωρεά they use of course the Financial year); as for the months, it is remarkable that letters written by (or in the name of) Zenon always bear an Egyptian month; on letters received, at first the Macedonian months and days are used in the docketed (during the travelling period) but as soon as he is established in Philadelphia he uses the Egyptian months and days (at first equated with the Macedonian ones).

Additional observation concerning the years

Apart from various errors in the numbers, there are also instances of numbers that are exactly ten lower than the normal year-numbers (this might point to a different era):

<sup>11</sup> The note on the back of P. Col. Zen. 2 93 belongs, according to the editors, to the address; the dates on the back of P. Cairo Zen. 5 59.834 and P. L. Bat. 20 34 (see note) perhaps indicate when the wine was actually paid out; the letter P. L. Bat. 20 40 bears a docket but it is unlikely that this text belongs to the archive.

It is remarkable that the latest document bearing docketed dates from the year 38, that is, probably, the last year that Zenon stayed on the δωρεά. From that year on, none of the documents received were docketed, either because Zenon no longer judged it necessary, or because he simply no longer had sufficient secretarial assistance, if indeed any at all. It may be noted that in previous years also docketed are sometimes lacking for certain periods, as, for example, in the autumn 251 (year 35), when Zenon was not on the δωρεά but in Alexandria.

travelling in Palestine and then in Lower Egypt; from 256 onwards he is resident at Philadelphia, first as administrator of the dorea and later as a private person. Only exceptionally can a person be demonstrated to appear on or to disappear from the scene within one of these two periods.

The place of residence, if known, is only given if it is not Philadelphia or more generally the Arsinoite nome. The geographical evidence can be of prime importance in distinguishing homonyms. Quite often we have grouped the evidence for a name in Palestine under a separate heading, partly based on the list "les rapports du cercle d'Apolónios et de Zénón avec l'étranger" in Pros. Ptol. VI, pp. 193-211.

The order in which homonyms are listed is based first on filiation (1. son of — —; 2. father of — —) and secondly on occupation. Here we have followed the order of the Prosopographia Ptolemaica. At the end of each entry we have grouped under the heading "unidentified persons" all references which did not yield enough information to be classified as a separate person or to be identified with one of the known bearers of the name.

We would also like to preface the following explanatory remarks:

- 1' The classification of homonymous persons is based in most cases on scattered notes by our predecessors. Anyone who wishes to make a thorough investigation into one or more persons must check the comments of the editors of the papyri (those of C. C. EDGAR and T. C. SKEAT have been especially useful to us) and of the authors of various studies (e.g. the Prosopographia Ptolemaica, the works of M. ROSTOVITZ, C. PRÉAUX, T. REEKMANS<sup>5</sup> and F. UEBEL, the articles of ANNA ŚWIDEREK, EVA WIPSZYCKA and others). We have not, as a rule, indicated the origin of the proposed identifications, the more so since we often had to make a choice between conflicting opinions by a renewed study of the texts.
- 2' We have preferred to create too many headings rather than too few. If a man performed two very different functions at the same time, or if he changed his occupation from one period to another,<sup>6</sup> our sources usually present him as two homonymous persons and only exceptionally do we get a hint at their identity.<sup>7</sup> The same holds true for some people who are attested with patronymic and ethnic but without any indication of their occupation or office in one text (e.g. as a witness) and with only name and occupation or office in another. Only if their name is a rather rare one does it become possible to identify them.
- 3' It goes without saying that this Prosopography is not a definitive work. It is only a starting-point for thorough prosopographical investigations. As far as possible we have tried to indicate what is certain, what is probable, and what is only possible. A serious imperfection in our method derives from the scarcity of available photographs which might have allowed identifications by means of the handwriting. The <sup>6</sup> A typical example is Zenon himself, who was first a private agent of the dioiketes in Palestine and Egypt, and later became the manager of a large estate in Philadelphia, running at the same time several personal enterprises, for example in tax-farming.

<sup>7</sup> As in the case of Herianouphis, where P. Lond. 7 2007 makes it highly probable that the sailor (ναύτης) and the swineherd (βοφωβός) of this name are in fact one and the same person.
